Item 1.01      Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On February 15, 2018, Wyndham Destination Network, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company ("WDN LLC") and a subsidiary of Wyndham Worldwide Corporation ("Wyndham Worldwide"), and certain other subsidiaries of Wyndham Worldwide (collectively with WDN LLC, the "Sellers") accepted a binding offer made by Compass IV Limited, a company incorporated in England and Wales (the "Buyer"), an affiliate of Platinum Equity, LLC, to purchase the Wyndham Vacation Rentals Europe business (the "Business") from the Sellers by way of a sale of shares of certain subsidiaries of Wyndham Worldwide that own and operate the Business (collectively, the "Targets"). The Buyer and the Sellers have agreed that the sale of the Business will occur on the terms of a proposed Share Sale Agreement (the "Sale Agreement"), entry into which is subject only to completion of certain Dutch works council consultation procedures (the "Dutch Works Council Consultation"). The purchase price to be paid by the Buyer for the Business is approximately $1.3 billion, subject to an adjustment to account for the value of certain assets and liabilities of the Targets as of the closing of the divestiture ("Closing").

Closing is expected to occur during the second quarter of 2018 and is subject to approval of the divestiture by each of the European Commission and the UK Financial Conduct Authority. The Sale Agreement may be terminated by the Buyer or the Sellers if such approvals are not obtained on or before July 2, 2018. Additionally, WDN LLC has the right to terminate the Sale Agreement prior to Closing upon payment to the Buyer of a $55 million break fee. The Buyer may also terminate the Sale Agreement if sufficient credit support has not been put in place for the Business by the Sellers prior to Closing. If the Buyer terminates the Sale Agreement in this scenario, WDN LLC must pay the Buyer a $55 million break fee.

The Buyer and the Sellers have agreed that the Sellers will abide by various covenants set out in the Sale Agreement until Closing (or the cessation of the Buyer's and the Sellers' obligation to enter into the Sale Agreement as described above, whichever occurs first) including, among others, that the Sellers will conduct the Business in the ordinary course and will generally observe the provisions of the Sale Agreement that relate to the conduct of the Business in the period between signing of the Sale Agreement and Closing. These covenants are subject to exceptions that permit the Sellers and the Targets to undertake certain actions before Closing, including to effect the separation of the Targets and the Business from those parts of WDN LLC's businesses that are not being sold to the Buyer.

The Sale Agreement contains customary representations and warranties of each party. Damages for breach of warranty are subject to customary limitations on the Sellers' liability and the parties expect the Buyer to enter into a warranty and indemnity insurance policy with respect to the warranties given by the Sellers under the Sale Agreement. WDN LLC has guaranteed the obligations of the other Sellers under the Sale Agreement.

Buyer and the Sellers (and, in certain cases, other subsidiaries of WDN LLC) will enter into a transitional services agreement for the provision of certain services to the Business for a transitional period, a customary tax indemnity deed governing the Sellers' and the Buyer's respective rights, responsibilities and obligations in respect of certain tax liabilities and tax administration matters, a 20-year trademark license agreement for the "by Wyndham Vacation Rentals" consumer-facing endorser trademark and associated digital assets, under which the Business will pay a royalty fee of 1% of net revenue to Wyndham's hotel business for the right to use such "by Wyndham Vacation Rentals" endorser trademark, and a rewards agreement outlining the Business' continued participation as a redemption partner in the Wyndham Rewards Program.

WDN LLC will also provide post-Closing credit support, in the form of an unsecured guarantee, letter of credit or otherwise, in a fixed amount, to ensure that the Targets meet the requirements of certain service providers and regulatory authorities.

Wyndham Worldwide Announces Agreement to Sell its European Vacation Rental Business to Platinum Equity

PARSIPPANY, N.J., February 15, 2018 — Wyndham Worldwide Corporation (NYSE: WYN) today announced that it has entered into a definitive agreement for the sale of its European vacation rental business to Platinum Equity for approximately $1.3 billion.

In conjunction with the sale, the European vacation rental business has entered into a 20-year agreement under which it will pay a royalty fee of 1% of net revenue to Wyndham's hotel business for the right to use the by Wyndham Vacation Rentals® endorser brand. The European vacation rentals operations will also participate as a redemption partner in the award-winning Wyndham Rewards® loyalty program.

Wyndham's industry-leading European vacation rental business is the largest manager of holiday rentals in Europe, with more than 110,000 units in over 600 destinations in more than 25 countries. The business operates more than two dozen local brands, including cottages.com, James Villa Holidays, Landal GreenParks, Novasol and Hoseasons. It generates approximately $750 million in annual revenue and approximately $130 million of EBITDA (earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization), including allocated costs.

Wyndham Worldwide originally announced its intent to explore strategic alternatives for its European rental brands in August 2017, in conjunction with the Company's announcement of the planned separation of its hotel business from its vacation ownership and timeshare exchange businesses. The transaction is expected to close in the second quarter of 2018, subject to customary closing conditions including works council consultation.

"Along with our planned separation and recently announced acquisition of La Quinta's franchising and management businesses, this is another important step in the evolution of our Company," said Stephen P. Holmes, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Wyndham Worldwide. "Our European vacation rental brands deliver a great consumer experience, have high brand recognition in their markets and have delivered strong, consistent results. Our goal has always been to position them for continued long-term growth. We conducted a rigorous strategic review process that generated strong interest from multiple parties, and we were pleased to find the right buyer. We are confident that as part of Platinum Equity's portfolio, these businesses will have a bright future and will provide significant opportunities for their associates and business partners."

Platinum Equity is a leading global private equity firm with a highly specialized focus on business operations and more than 20 years' experience acquiring and operating businesses that have been part of large corporate entities.

"We have worked closely with Wyndham Worldwide to craft a divestiture solution that creates value for all sides and puts the European vacation rental business on a path for long-term success as a standalone business," said Platinum Equity Partner Louis Samson. "We are excited to partner with the management team to ensure a seamless transition while preparing our plans to drive additional growth, both organically and through prospective add-on acquisitions."

Platinum Equity has been very active in the European M&A market and the firm's current portfolio companies employ more than 16,000 people in the region. The proposed acquisition of Wyndham's European vacation rental business represents Platinum Equity's second European investment since the fourth quarter 2017 when the firm acquired Pattonair.

Wyndham Worldwide estimates that the tax obligations associated with the sale of the European Rental brands will be less than 15% of the proceeds. The Company expects to use the net proceeds from the sale for general corporate purposes, which may include debt repayment and/or funding of its recently announced acquisition of La Quinta Holdings' hotel franchising and management businesses. Wyndham Worldwide's planned spin-off of Wyndham Hotel Group remains on track for an expected distribution in the second quarter of 2018.

Deutsche Bank and Goldman Sachs are serving as financial advisors, and Kirkland & Ellis International LLP and Dechert LLP are serving as legal advisors to Wyndham Worldwide. Financing for the acquisition will be led by Bank of America Merrill Lynch. Latham & Watkins is acting as legal counsel to Platinum Equity.
